Dear Daughter Dorothy With seven illustrations by the author. Small 4to. $1.00. "There is something in a tender, touching, sweet, and wholesome tale like that of 'Dear Daughter Dorothy' that approaches the effect of a minor means of grace. The winsome little maid, with her loyalty and love, attracts our hearts as Little Lord Fauntleroy has done, and reveals the divine element in childhood

While reading the story we caught ourselves failing in love with the lovely child, who was withal a creature not too wise or good for human nature's daily food. We heartly thank the author for a precious contribu-tion to our child-lore."—Christian Union. Dorothy and Anton A Sequel to "Dear Daughter Dorothy." Illustrated by the author. Square 12mo. trations by the Author. Svo. Cloth, Ornamental, Uncut Edges and Gilt Top. $7.50. (In a Box) "The work is the most complete of its kind yet published. From the introduction to the index it is complete, and yet so well told is the story that it may be understood by any reader."—Boston Journal.

STOPS OF VARIOUS QUILLS

Poems. By W. D. Howells. With Illustrations by Howard PYLE. 4to, Cloth, Ornamental, Uncut Edges and Gilt

Limited Edition of Fifty Copies on Handmade Paper. signed by Mr. Howells and Mr. Pyle, with the Text Illustrations in Sepia (the full-page illustrations are Japan proofs in black), 4to, Deckel Edges, Half Cloth, Gilt Top, $15.00. (In a Box.) "Mr. Howells has given us here a remarkable book, as we have said, and one which we would select as an infailible touchstone of the poetic knowledge or ignorance of its readers. If they are enamored of perfect technique, it may not please them; but if they know what poetry is, apart from its technique, they will be profoundly touched by it, and will return to it again and again."—N. Y. Mail and Express.

FROM THE BLACK SEA

Through Persia and India. Written and Illustrated by Ep-WIN LORD WEEKS. With Photogravure Portrait. 8vo. Cloth, Ornamental, Uncut Edges and Gilt Top, $3.50. "The book is very handsomely published . . . and a choicer thing of its kind is not on the book market." -Interior, Chicago.
"It is not too much to call it the book of travel of the year." - Boston Advertiser.

NOTES ON JAPAN

Written and Illustrated by ALFRED PARSONS. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Ornamental, Uncut Edges and Gilt Top, $3.00. "The story of the artist's solourn among the interesting people who have lately occupied so large a share of the world's attention is admirably well told, and the book may fairly be accounted one of the most attractive of the season,"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

of "People We Pass," "On Canada's Frontier," "Our Great West," etc. Illustrated. 8vo, Cloth, Ornamental, $2.50. "Why cannot all travellers tell their story in as fascinating a fashion? To say that Mr. Raibh sees things with the eye of the trained observer is to utter a commonplace. It is more than that; it is the work of the artist in observation, the mind that catches the salient and striking points, whether they be grave or gay."—

Breaklers Freile.

Or Southern Scenes and Sketches. By JULIAN RALPH, Author

PONY TRACKS Written and Illustrated by FREDERIC REMINGTON. Svo. Cloth,

"Remington shows himself here an artist in words as he has long been recognized to be with the pencil. His descriptions, like his pictures, represent the essence of things in a realistic way."—N. Y. Evening Post,

Troy, N. Y. Budget:

"Those who have read other biographies of the martyr President might imagine there was nothing new to be told concerning his familiar career. The illusion will last only until they have read the part of the new biography published in the November McClure's. This will reveal to them the fact that the mine has never been so thoroughly explored for biographical materials and anecdotes,"

The First Edition of the December number consists of 250,000 Copies : 1 : 1 3

It contains new illustrations and facts relating to LINCOLN'S EARLY LIFE in Indiana and Illinois. Fresh anecdotes of Lincoln as a boy in Indiana. The Journey to Illinois. Lincoln's peddling experiences on the road. Lincoln starts out for himself. Building the flatboat. new story of how Lincoln saved three comrades from drowning. Adventures on the flatboat trip to New Orleans. Lincoln's first vote. This installment of the biography is illustrated with * TWENTY-FIVE LINCOLN PORTRAITS including four early portraits of Lincoln; pictures of the places and scenes of his life in Indiana and Illinois, portraits of his old friends and neighbors, a fac-simile of the record of his first vote at New Salem, and other pictures and documents.
